THE LONGKUMERS

Taku and Katie Longkumer are engaged in a variety of leadership development projects in North East India. As part of their partnership with the Council of Baptist Churches of N.E. India, they empower and equip both indigenous missionaries and local church leadership through education, worship and disciples initiatives.

LONGKUMERS INDIA LEGACY FUND

The Longkumers India Legacy Fund (LILF) was established in 2014 to provide continuing support for Taku and Katie Longkumer, Development Workers in N.E. India and in perpetuity for leadership development projects in the ministry of India. The LILF is will be used for targeted support of the Longkumers and any successors serving in N.E. India.

NEED FOR SUSTAINABILITY

The Longkumers and International Ministries have partnered with the American Baptist Foundation to establish the Longkumers India Legacy Fund, for those wishing to support thier ministry through charitable gifts and planned giving. With contributions, memorials and estate plan distributions, the LILF can grow to be an important component of sustainable mission presence in North East India.
